

Financial Analyst

Goodnight Midstream provides professional fluids management services to oil and gas producers. The Company owns and operates an extensive network of water gathering pipelines and salt water disposal wells focused on gathering and disposing of produced saltwater. In addition to Goodnight's leading position in North Dakota, Goodnight has an emerging presence in Wyoming's Powder River Basin and the Permian Basin of Texas and New Mexico.

Job Summary: This exempt-level position will report to the Director of Finance, and will be responsible for financial analysis used to monitor and project company performance.

Responsibilities

- Analyze financial results and communicate important trends and measurement.
- Perform variance analysis and research to explain any differences.
- Track company market share.
- Forecast company-wide G&A expenses.
- Build and maintain reports in accounting software.
- Maintain a list of company assets.
- Track customer statistics (Rigs, permits etc.).
- Assist in developing finance and business presentations.
- Execute value-added analysis and provide decision support for special projects and initiatives.
- Assist in providing other ad hoc reports and analyses at the request of management.

Education and Experience:

A Bachelor's Degree in Finance or Accounting is required. Two (2) to four (4) years of related experience required. Experience in the oil and gas industry preferred. Proficiency with Microsoft Office [Excel & PowerPoint].

A successful incumbent will possess the ability to manage multiple tasks, prioritize accordingly, work independently and be resourceful. Candidate must be detail-oriented and organized. Ability to meet deadlines is essential, as are strong written and verbal communication skills. The ideal candidate will have a good business acumen and strong analytical skills. Self-motivation and a team player attitude are a must!

Working Environment/Physical Requirements:

Working conditions are normal for an office environment. This position must be able to move around the office 20% of the time; This position constantly operates computers, phones, printers and other office productivity machines (e.g., fax machine, copier, printer, etc.). Occasional lifting required up to 10 lbs. This position requires frequent communication and exchange of information verbally and in writing.